Dear Mr Higgs

I am writing in response to your letter seeking permission to approach Catholic secondary schools in South Australia to collect information for your research on possible selves and the motivation of high school students.

I am happy to approve your request. This approval is subject to the confidentiality of any of our schools, staff and students being maintained in any publication or presentation of your findings, as indicated in your letter. It will also be necessary to gain the approval of principals of the schools and individuals whom you propose to include in your research.

I wish you well in your research and would be most interested in receiving a copy of your findings.

With best wishes

Yours sincerely
